Hongkong, November 23, 1878.

NOTICE.

TAKASHIMA COAL.

WE hereby beg to notify that we have instituted legal proceedings against Mr. Goto Shojiro, the owner of the Takashima Collieries and Mines, for breaches of his agreements with us, as Agents of the said Mines, by delivering Coal, and otherwise, and for an indebtedness in respect thereof.

His agreements with us render it a wrongful act on his part, to supply the produce of the mines, through others than ourselves, or to give possession of any part, or to recover the proceeds thereof without our consent.

Our exclusive right to supply, our present possession, and right to possession, and our absolute right to claim and receive the proceeds of the produce of the Takashima Mines have never been waived by us.

We therefore formally warn all purchasers, and others concerned, not to pay or advance to Mr. Goto Shojiro, or to any other than ourselves money on account of any Coal supplied or delivered, or to be supplied or delivered by him, or others from the Takashima Collieries and Mines, and we hereby give notice that we shall hold any person or persons receiving any Coal, directly or indirectly from the said Collieries and Mines, responsible to us for the value thereof.

We further give notice, that we shall be prepared, on receipt of the purchase money, to indemnify any purchaser of the said Coal against any claim that Mr. Goto Shojiro, or any other person, may substantiate against him, in respect to such purchase.

CAUTION TO THE PUBLIC!

DR. BRIGHT'S PHOSPHODYNE.

WHEREAS it has become known to the Proprietors of Dr. BRIGHT'S PHOSPHODYNE that a worthless imitation, bearing a similar name, is exported to India, China, &c., and endeavored to be foisted on purchasers as equal in efficacy to Dr. BRIGHT'S Phosphodyne, they feel it due to the public to specially caution them against this compound and request their most careful attention to the following distinctive characteristics of Dr. BRIGHT'S (the only genuine) Phosphodyne.

1st.—That Dr. BRIGHT'S Phosphodyne is sold only in cases.
2nd.—The words "Dr. BRIGHT'S Phosphodyne" are clearly blown in each bottle.
3rd.—The Registered Trade Mark and Signature of Patentee are printed on the label of every case.
4th.—Directions for use in all the following languages are enclosed in each case:—English, French, German, Italian, Danish, Spanish, Portuguese, Russian, Dutch, Turkish, Persian, Hindostani, Madras, Bengalee, Chinese, and Japanese.

Without which none can POSSIBLY be Genuine.

DR. BRIGHT'S PHOSPHODYNE

Is the Only Reliable Remedy for NERVOUS AND LIVER COMPLAINTS
AND ALL
FUNCTIONAL DERANGEMENTS.

DR. BRIGHT'S PHOSPHODYNE is patronized by the Aristocracy and the Elite, extensively used in the Army and Navy, and strongly recommended by the leading Medical Practitioners.

DR. BRIGHT'S PHOSPHODYNE

Is sold by all Chemists and Patent Medicine Vendors throughout the Globe.
In India, China, &c., DR. BRIGHT'S PHOSPHODYNE is generally sold at an advance on the English Price.
The high Estimation in which Phosphodyne is held is unquestionably due to its administration, in this form. Therefore

ASK FOR

DR. BRIGHT'S PHOSPHODYNE

And do not be persuaded to take any Useless and Possibly Dangerous
Imitation.

CAUTION TO MEDICINE VENDORS.

The Trade Mark, Label, &c., of DR. BRIGHT'S PHOSPHODYNE are duly entered at Stationers' Hall, London, and are also registered in the Chief Offices of the World. Chemists and Druggists are hereby warned that legal proceedings will be immediately instituted by the Authorized Agents, against any person or persons selling fraudulent imitations of DR. BRIGHT'S (the only genuine) PHOSPHODYNE, from this date, 1st October, 1878.

LOCAL AND GENERAL.

The Summary Jurisdiction Court will not sit until Wednesday, the 4th instant.

The case of Charles Newman will be proceeded with to-morrow at the Supreme Court before a Special Jury.

A boat race between the ward-room officers of H. M. S. Victor Emanuel and H. M. S. Magpie, came off this afternoon, and resulted in a victory for the "Victors" by 40 or 50 yards. The course was from the Victor Emanuel round the Meane and back.

An inquest, which was opened on Thursday last on the body of a Chinese male, name unknown, found floating in the harbour near the Ichang Steamer's Wharf on Thursday morning, was resumed this afternoon at the Magistrate's, before the Coroner (C. V. Cragg, Esq.), and the following Jury, Messrs W. H. Hammond, L. Hauschild, and A. de Brette. A verdict of found drowned was returned.

It is notified in Saturday's Government Gazette that His Excellency the Governor has made the following temporary and provisional appointments (which we noted some time ago), pending the decision of the Secretary of State for the Colonies:—Mr J. Dyer Ball to be Acting Assistant Interpreter at the Supreme Court, Mr Murray to be Acting Fourth Master at the Central School, and Mr McKinney to be Acting Fifth Master at the Central School.

To-morrow (Tuesday) being the day set apart by the Church of England, as a day of Intercession for foreign missions, there will be an administration of the Holy Communion in St. Paul's College Chapel at 8 a.m.; Morning Prayer and short address at St. Peter's (Seamen's) Church at 11; and a Prayer Meeting with addresses by the Revs. A. B. Hutchinson and R. Lecher at 5 p.m. in the College Chapel.

The Band 74th Highlanders will perform the following programme at the Officer's Mess to-night, commencing at 8.45 p.m.:—Overture, "Jam O' Shanties," Bishop. Yalse, "Debutante," Guig. Selection, "Mademoiselle," Verdi. Yalse, "Bienvenue," Waldteufel. Pastorale, "Scotland," Goldrey. Galop, "Fidelity," Faust. Mr J. BUCHANAN, Bandmaster.

In our report of the St. Andrew's Ball, it seems that we thrust the honour of the floral star decoration upon Mr Ford (superintendent of the Government Gardens), when that unobtrusive gentleman was quite innocent of the "soft impeachment." The fine piece of floral work thus fastened on the wrong man was, it seems, the work of several artists, whose extreme modesty has hitherto baffled all our interviewers' inquiries—an undoubted proof, we should add, of their accurate appreciation of the true spirit of high art.

LING ALAN and 18 others were charged at the Police Court to-day with being found in houses 29 and 31 Gilman's Bazaar, which houses were known and believed to be gambling dens. Informations were laid against several houses in this Bazaar, including 29 and 31, and warrants granted to search the same, and in these two houses there was every indication that gambling was carried on. The trap doors, fantan cash and other concomitants which go to make up the stock-in-trade of such places were all found. The informers swore to having gambled there, but the defendants were simply discharged with a caution. We suggested on Saturday that a plain clothes onslaugt, might be tried, but we have since found that we had underrated the forethought of Captain Deane and his assistants, as this method of catching the gamblers napping has been frequently resorted to with varied success and failure. It appears that the police are so well known to the majority of these "hall" keepers that their movements, whether in plain clothes or uniform, are watched as keenly as the police watch law-breakers.

With reference to the Chinese pensioners of the police force it may be noted that the "look-ons" are very fortunate in being granted a pension after so short a term of service. The members of the European and Indian contingents, being away from home, are entitled to great consideration on the part of the Government; but with the bold lunkongs it is otherwise; they are at home, or all events within a short distance from it. Our soldiers and sailors have to serve 20 or 31 years before they become entitled to a pension, and why such useless appendages, as the majority of the Chinese police force here have proved themselves to be, should be pampered and pensioned after a few short years of loafing is a mystery which they themselves perhaps are at a loss to understand. Such treatment it is evident does not tend to make them zealous servants, although it may call into play a little more of that cunning which the Chinese are well known to possess.

The earthquake felt here on the morning of the 23rd (at 3.15) appears to have been of more than ordinary power at Yokohama, as may be seen by the following notice from the Yokohama Gazette:—

At 11h. 7m. p.m. yesterday (Nov. 22nd) there was an earthquake, and at 11h. 18m. 30s. another. The first was of much more than ordinary power; it seemed to be a continuous wave travelling from E. S. E. to W. N. W. and its duration exceeded one minute. The second shock was slight, and apparently from the same direction. The following letter is interesting, as it gives useful particulars of the influence of the shock upon vessels lying in the harbour:—

Yesterday at 11h. 7m. p.m. a severe tremblement de terre was felt, on my charge (the Atago Maru). I was in the cabin at the time. Suddenly the ship commenced to shake and tremble considerably. There were two such severe shocks as to make me doubt whether the ship had taken the ground or not. The lead, however, notwithstanding the shaking of chains and rudder, the cracking of partitions, and the bumping of the ship as it is short head-sea, started all on board. The ship was heading north; and as there was pitching, but no rolling, the earthquake must have travelled in a Southerly or Northerly direction. It lasted about one minute.

SUPREME COURT.

IN PROBATE.
(Before the FULL COURT.)
December 2, 1878.

IN THE ESTATE OF THE LATE WILLIAM WILSON, DECEASED.
This was a petition, made by Messrs Jarine, Matheson & Co., to annul probate which had been granted to Mr John Grant Smith, one of the executors in the estate of the late Mr William Wilson. The petitioners are the Attorneys of Mr Alexander Wilson, the other executor in the estate. The case was argued at some length before the Full Court on the 1st April last, and their Lordships now dismissed the petition, with costs, so that defendant's letters of probate still hold good. Mr Hayler appeared for the petitioners, and Mr Toller for the defendant.

Marine Court.

(Before J. P. McEuen, Esq., Acting Marine Magistrate.)
2nd Dec., 1878.

DRUNK AND DISORDERLY.
John Blair, a seaman belonging to the British barque Elizabeth Childs, was charged with being drunk and disorderly on board his ship, and breaking a concertina valued at $2.50. It appears that the defendant was mad drunk in the fore-cabin, and all the other members of the crew were afraid of him. He was ordered to draw a knife on them. The Captain found him in the fore-cabin, and he had smashed a concertina the property of one of the crew. The defendant admitted having been drunk, and said he remembered nothing of what had occurred. Fined $5, and ordered to pay $2.50 amends for the broken concertina.

DRUNK AND FIGHTING.
Hugh Nicol and Martin Skain, seamen belonging to the British barque Emily Chaplin, were charged with being drunk and fighting on board their ship. Defendants had nothing to say in defence, and were each fined $5.

Police Intelligence.

(Both Magistrates Sitting.)
2nd Dec., 1878.

THE DEMON GOLD.
Cheung Aon, a fortune-teller, was charged on remand with obtaining $8.50 from one Keung Aon by false pretences. It appears that the complainant, who is a man to P.C. Bond's family, was sent by his mistress to sell a piece of gold. She got $8.50 for the gold and was returning home with the money, when she was hailed by the defendant and another man who called out "Ap! Ap!" (old woman). She stopped and enquired what they wanted, and defendant then took out several nuggets, which looked like gold, and told the old woman to follow him. She followed them to Bonham Strand. There were no men in the street at the time but defendant and his companion. Complainant thought the nuggets were gold because the men told her so, and she judged also by the appearance of the nuggets. When they reached Bonham Strand, they all three sat down in a quiet place, and the nuggets were again produced. Complainant enquired where they got them, and defendant said he was a bricklayer and whilst cutting earth at Hs-wai, he saw a white rat and thinking something valuable must be in the earth on this account he killed the rat, dug a little further, and found a heap of gold. He (the gold-finder) was anxious to sell the dear old lady a little of the gold having taken a fancy to her, but she must promise not to say anything about the transaction to any one. He then enquired how much money she had about her, and she replied $8.50. Defendant then offered her two nuggets for that sum. The poor dupe, doubtingly imagining she had fallen in for a good thing, at once closed with the offer; and the greed of gain having got full mastery of her, she asked him for one more nugget, but the liberal gold merchant's generosity was proof against this request, though doubtless accompanied with the most winning smiles, and he told her that the two nuggets he had already parted with to her were worth $40. The credulous dupe on hearing this at once went away, perhaps fearful lest the man should repent of his bargain. She then at once proceeded to a goldsmith's shop in the Queen's Road, and asked the shop-people how much they would give her for the nuggets, when she was told they were copper and that if it was not for her age they would give her in custody; she returned to Bonham Strand in search of the dealers in precious metal, but the birds had flown. She then returned to her mistress a sadder but a wiser Amah, and at about 4 o'clock on Saturday afternoon, she was carrying a child in her arms—possibly breathing sage counsel into its little ears, and warning it to beware of the wickedness and duplicity of mankind in general and gold-mongers in particular, when she espied the defendant alone in the street. Her master and mistress gave chase, and defendant was caught by her master and a lunkong. Defendant, who had failed to give a satisfactory account of himself, said that he sold the nuggets to the complainant for 85 cents, but said he told her they were iron and were used for children's bangles. Mr Cragg sent him to 6 months' imprisonment two weeks of which were to be in solitary confinement and the rest hard labour, and the day previous to his release from Gaol to be exposed in the stocks for six hours near one of the theatres.

DRUNKENNESS.
Thomas Olsen, seaman German ship Frederick, was fined $1, and ordered to pay 10 cents chair-hire for the above offence.

RECEIVING STOLEN GOODS.

Cheung Ato, master of the Nam Sing schooner, was charged by Mr Lewis Thevenin, with feloniously receiving two pairs of boots, his property, well knowing them to have been stolen. It appears that about six weeks ago about 16 pairs of boots were stolen from complainant's store. They all had complainant's name stamped upon them, they were supposed to have been stolen by complainant's servants and the robbery was duly reported to the police. On Saturday last, complainant went into defendant's shop to buy a pair of boots in question, and saw the boots in question in a glass case. He examined them and found his name on them. Defendant said he bought one pair from a Parsee, Mr Sorabjee, and the other pairs he received in exchange for a pair of shoes from a German gentleman. Mr Sorabjee Munchejee said he was a merchant in Wellington Street; he had sold no boots to the defendant lately. He had sold boots to other Chinese. (Defendant produced a receipt for $2 from Mr Sorabjee Munchejee's house). Mr Sorabjee Munchejee, however, explained that the receipt was for a pair of boots, which he bought from Lammer, Atkinson & Co's store.

Defendant was acquitted, but the boots, being clearly the property of Mr Thevenin, were ordered to be given up to him.

THE WRONG MAN.
We A-yau, a boarding house runner, was charged by P.C. No. 79 (Smith) with obstructing the fairway and boarding the S.S. Trochilus at 6.30 a.m. this morning. The constable stated that defendant was in a hired boat which got in the way of the steamer, and that defendant repeatedly tried to get on board the steamer although warned not to do so by the people on board. The defendant was discharged, Mr Francis ruling that the master or owner of the boat, and not the passenger, was the proper person to be charged; being on board a steamer against the will of the owner or master was merely a civil trespass and not a criminal offence.

FOND OF SODA.
Fung A-fat, a coolie, was charged with stealing a bottle of Soda-water the property of Mr William Young, and being at large in the streets this morning before sunrise without a light and pass. Prisoner admitted stealing the Soda-water, but said that he was a servant of the Bakery Company he was out delivering bread. He was ordered to be exposed in the stocks for 6 hours for the first offence, but was discharged on the second having a reasonable excuse.

China.

FORMOSA.

An article in the Amoy Gazette states that petroleum or rock oil is obtainable at many places in both North and South Formosa. In April, 1865, a large spring was discovered in the hills South East of the port of Owlan, in Lat. N. 24° 30' and Long. E. 121° or thereabouts. The principal spring in these parts is situated on the edge of the Owlan River some 5 or 6 miles inland from the town of Bahli, the last town or village on the borders of any importance; it is also at the very foot of a hill. At certain times of the year the river swells and widens and a wide rapid is formed, and on such occasions the spring is filled with river water, and the oil is carried away down the stream. When the discovery of this well was made, the oil could be tasted in the water some distance off. At that time the spring was on the savage border, and the use was unknown to both savages and Chinese. This spring is not the only evidence of rock oil, for on exploring the hills in rear of this spring, that is to the East, large fire holes were found, and high up on the top of a high hill a small spring was discovered amongst a lot of rocks, and on placing the ear close to the ground a gurgling sound was heard, as if gas was forcing its way through the water from some cistern below. The fire holes are supplied with the gas of petroleum from the same cistern, and many have been alight for several years. It was these fire holes that used in former years to deceive mariners and led to the mistaken belief that there were active volcanoes in the island. The principal spring gives out spontaneously about half a picul of oil per day, but a larger quantity was obtained on boring a few feet deeper. The oil from this well was analysed by Dr. Lethely and pronounced to be true rock oil, similar to the oil obtainable in Pennsylvania and elsewhere in America. The distance from the spring to Owlan, the nearest port of shipment, is 15 miles. The river at the edge of which the spring is, continues its course in rather a circuitous route all the way to Owlan, and empties itself into the sea. Boats cannot take the oil down all the way, as very often the river is perfectly dry, but the road from Owlan to Bahli, say 10 miles, is as good as any in the island, and the road between Bahli and the petroleum valley might easily be improved. The journey all the way is through a plain, and there would be no difficulty in laying down a tramway similar to the one at Kelung. The lofty ranges of hills to the East of the petroleum valley have been explored to some extent, and in almost every range were found evidences of the existence of coal. None of the veins or seams are being worked in this neighbourhood, as the country is in a lawless state. Moreover wood and charcoal are very cheap and at hand, and the article is therefore not wanted by the natives. The coal fields in these hills must be inexhaustible and the obstacles in transit are very few. At the entrance of the Owlan River there is a bar, and vessels drawing only 9 feet can pass over it with safety. The st. Volunteer has often been across the bar. When the tide is out lorchaes and junks are often high and dry on the mud.

SHANGHAI.

(Courier.)

We hear that the C. M. Co.'s steamer Yung-ching, which arrived here this morning (Nov. 27th) from Nyoehwang, is the last steamer this season from that port. There were no steamers in port when the Yung-ching left, but only four sailing vessels, lying in Deep-hole. No ice yet.

NEWBANG.

November 21.

This is likely to be the last steamer of the season, although there are rumours of several others being on the way. They must look sharp, for, after a long spell of southerly winds, the weather has all at once become very wintry again—and this morning we had some 10° frost, according to Fahrenheit, the wind being fresh from N.E. All the sailing vessels are cleared, and the last one (Jorjalen) is now under way (not weigh, I suppose) towards the Bar. The Customs lorcha is docked on the British settlement, Consular notifications notwithstanding, and so far as the river, is to be seen on the river. We have had a large shipping business, over 450 vessels having entered the port this year—or about 100 vessels more than any previous season—against some 284 vessels for the season 1877. The opium consignments have been solely in the hands of natives since the closing of the two great Indian houses, and so far as these regions are concerned, therefore, any ill that may be done to the Celestial's morals is on account of his doing the business cheaper than perhaps can be done by foreigners. In fact John Chinaman will make dollars without paying much attention as to who makes them, and we know of instances where natives were in the employment of missionaries, and kept opium dens at the same time—not with the knowledge of their employers, of course; but at the very time when the employer as preacher or tract distributor was looked upon in the light of almost a holy being. However sincere our missionaries may be, they must admit after they have had the least experience in China, that the native, as a rule, will only become a convert to feather his nest. Give a little rice to each one, and you may make any number of Christians—but give them money also, and the chances are many of them will go and "do" an opium pipe. This love of the drug was known here long before a foreigner had ever been thought of. The commonest working coolie will spend two-thirds of his earnings in smoke—and go about half fed and half clad in the bitterest weather that can be imagined—and, perhaps overcome by an extra dose, will lie down in some corner of a street and be frozen to death—the drug being hauled in a Chinese opium shop and imported by Chinese. So much for putting the blame on the foreigner.—Shanghai Courier.

Japan.

NAGASAKI.

(Rising Sun.)

It is with great regret that we record the death of Mr W. M. Ross, who expired after a sudden illness of about six hours. He was an old resident of Nagasaki, and had for some years past been engaged in business as a barber. Many of his old customers and friends will be sensible of his loss, and his death will leave another blank in the Settlement. He died on Monday morning about 1.0 a.m. and was interred at the cemetery in the afternoon of the following day. Those who are interested in the completion of the dock at Tatsumi will be glad to hear that the temporary wooden dam, rendered necessary by the accidental flooding of the dock which happened on the last day of June, has been successfully placed in position, and that the erection of the shores has been commenced. It is hoped that in a few days this will be completed, when the water will be pumped out of the dock, and the caisson which now lies on its side at the bottom will be removed and repaired. So that we look forward to a short time only elapsing before this magnificent work may be said to be finished.

The Straits.

(Singapore Daily Times.)

With reference to Renter's telegram stating that an attempt had been made to assassinate the King of Italy, and that the President of the Council, Signor Cairoli, had been mortally wounded while seizing the assassin, we are informed by the Italian Consul, the Chevalier Festa, that he has received a telegram stating that King Humbert had been severely scratched and Signor Cairoli only slightly wounded. We are indebted to a correspondent for the following more accurate account of the shooting of the tiger on Saturday, referred to in yesterday's (Nov. 18th) issue. It would seem that tigers are increasing in numbers on the island, or, at all events, are not so scarce as they have been generally believed to be.

"An old Malay man, who looks after a plantation at Teluk Paku, near Tanah Merab, having seen that a good deal of damage was being done by pigs in the plantation, thought he would try and shoot one, so he made a platform about 10 or 15 feet high up in a tree, and watched there all Friday night, without seeing anything. At about 7.30 a.m. on Saturday he saw some sort of an animal come right underneath the tree he was in and sniff round it. He did not know what the animal was, never having seen a tiger in his life. However he was very much frightened that it might be able to reach him, so he thought he had better fire, which he did, hitting the tiger in the back just behind the shoulder. This shot probably killed him, but he thought he saw it move, so he fired another shot, and hit it in the neck. Then he came down from his perch, and I think he was rather surprised when he found he had killed a tiger. The skeleton which is perfect except that the back of the skull is a little broken, will be set up in the Museum. The osteologist of the Museum considers the tiger to be probably about 50 years old. The Malay received the usual reward of $50 from Government. Another smaller tiger, which was caught at Sirangani, has been sold privately by the men who caught it. Its mother is still about Sirangani district and has been wounded."

TIENTSIN RACES, AUTUMN MEETING, 1878.

G. DETMERS, Esq.
R. J. FORBES, Esq.
W. GUBBINS, Esq.
W. JACKSON, Esq.
J. STEWART, Esq.
W. GUBBINS, Esq.—Clerk of Course.

We have had a tolerably successful Race Meeting in spite of the persistently wet state of the weather during the whole of the Autumn, which rendered it at one time exceedingly doubtful if a sufficiently dry part of the plain could be selected to allow of a Race Course being made. However, a spot was at length discovered tolerably close to the Settlement; and had it not been for a heavy fall of snow on the night of the 10th inst., the state of the Course would have left little to be desired. It proved to be somewhat heavy and slippery on the Race days, and the time was consequently not up to the usual standard. The programme was an attractive one, comprising a "Farewell Cup" presented by a late resident, and a donation of $200 from H.E. The Viceroy, while the "Russian Cup," a very handsome piece of plate, given as a Challenge Cup by Mr N. A. Nefedieff, was thoroughly appreciated by the fortunate winner, who had previously taken one of our best prizes to Peking, and will no doubt do his best to retain the present trophy. H.E. the Facet, who was present on the course during the second day, also contributed $100 towards the promotion of sport in the port.

The Racing was good, there being several closely contested finishes, and perhaps the hardest struggle of the meeting was the finish for the "Pitho Stakes" between Harlequin and Glimt, which ended in favor of the former by a nose, owing to the fine riding of Mr Randon. The Landers did not clear the board as at last meeting, but still secured a sufficient number of races to reward their enterprising and plucky owner. About the best pony of the meeting was Scindia, who showed very good form, but having only lately arrived from the country, he was very unfit, and would have been all the better for a week's more preparation. There was a large field for the Sallors' race, which was won by a small black pony admirably ridden by one of the crew of H.M.'s Hornet.

NAGASAKI.
(Rising Sun.)
It is with great regret that we record the death of Mr W. M. Ross, who expired after a sudden illness of about six hours. He was an old resident of Nagasaki, and had for some years past been engaged in business as a barber. Many of his old customers and friends will be sensible of his loss, and his death will leave another blank in the Settlement. He died on Monday morning about 1.0 a.m. and was interred at the cemetery in the afternoon of the following day. Those who are interested in the completion of the dock at Tatsumi will be glad to hear that the temporary wooden dam, rendered necessary by the accidental flooding of the dock which happened on the last day of June, has been successfully placed in position, and that the erection of the shores has been commenced. It is hoped that in a few days this will be completed, when the water will be pumped out of the dock, and the caisson which now lies on its side at the bottom will be removed and repaired. So that we look forward to a short time only elapsing before this magnificent work may be said to be finished.

The Straits.
(Singapore Daily Times.)
With reference to Renter's telegram stating that an attempt had been made to assassinate the King of Italy, and that the President of the Council, Signor Cairoli, had been mortally wounded while seizing the assassin, we are informed by the Italian Consul, the Chevalier Festa, that he has received a telegram stating that King Humbert had been severely scratched and Signor Cairoli only slightly wounded. We are indebted to a correspondent for the following more accurate account of the shooting of the tiger on Saturday, referred to in yesterday's (Nov. 18th) issue. It would seem that tigers are increasing in numbers on the island, or, at all events, are not so scarce as they have been generally believed to be.

"An old Malay man, who looks after a plantation at Teluk Paku, near Tanah Merab, having seen that a good deal of damage was being done by pigs in the plantation, thought he would try and shoot one, so he made a platform about 10 or 15 feet high up in a tree, and watched there all Friday night, without seeing anything. At about 7.30 a.m. on Saturday he saw some sort of an animal come right underneath the tree he was in and sniff round it. He did not know what the animal was, never having seen a tiger in his life. However he was very much frightened that it might be able to reach him, so he thought he had better fire, which he did, hitting the tiger in the back just behind the shoulder. This shot probably killed him, but he thought he saw it move, so he fired another shot, and hit it in the neck. Then he came down from his perch, and I think he was rather surprised when he found he had killed a tiger. The skeleton which is perfect except that the back of the skull is a little broken, will be set up in the Museum. The osteologist of the Museum considers the tiger to be probably about 50 years old. The Malay received the usual reward of $50 from Government. Another smaller tiger, which was caught at Sirangani, has been sold privately by the men who caught it. Its mother is still about Sirangani district and has been wounded."

RULES FOR SPOILING A CHILD.

1. Begin young. 2. Talk freely before the child about his smartness as incomparable. 3. Tell him he is too much for you, that you can do nothing with him. 4. Have divided counsels as between father and mother. 5. Let him learn to regard his father as a creature of unlimited power, capricious and tyrannical; or as a mere whipping machine. 6. Let him learn from his father's example to despise his mother. 7. Do not know or care who his companions may be. 8. Let him read whatever he likes. 9. Let the child, whether boy or girl, rove the streets in the evenings—a good school for both sexes. 10. Devote yourself to making money, remembering always that wealth is a better legacy for your child than principles in the heart and habits in the life; and let him have plenty of money to spend. 11. Be not with him in hours of recreation. 12. Strain at a gnat and swallow a camel; chastise severely for a fable, and laugh at a vice. 13. Let him run about from church. Ecclesiasticism in religion is the order of the day. 14. Whatever burdens of virtuous requirements you lay on his shoulders, touch not one with one of your fingers. These rules are not untried. Many parents have proved them; with substantial uniformity of results. If a faithful observance of them does not spoil your child, you will at least have the comfortable reflection that you have done what you could.

Merchant Vessels in Hongkong Harbour.

To facilitate finding the position of any vessel in the Harbour, the Anchorage is divided into eight Sections, commencing at Green Island. Vessels near the Hongkong shore are marked A., near the Kowloon shore K., and those in the body of the Shipping or midway between each shore are marked C., in conjunction with the figures denoting the sections.

Section

5. From P. and O. Co.'s Office to Peddar's Wharf.
6. From Peddar's Wharf to the Naval Yard.
7. From Naval Yard to the Pier.
8. From Pier to East Point.
